“ What can I say? The world is lesser place without this one. I knew Sherry from birth...she was there as I grew from the little tomboy, awkward teenager, etc...I have many memories...so many, but what I will miss most is the laughter, kindness, and all around positive energy that was simply intrinsic to being her. She left everyone a little better off....I know she made me feel special. Thanks kind lady...love you- Kathleen

“ Sherry and Jeff brought more joy to my life than I can possibly express in this short note. I remember the first time I met Jeff, who looked every inch the naval officer he would have been had not allergy to potatoes ended his stint at the Academy! They were so very generous to the church and to us all, and even prevailed on acquaintances who lived in Decatur to take us in for a couple of days when I was discharged from Emory University Hospital. Years earlier, Sherry and Jeff had kept our children for a weekend, quite a treat for our children (and we hope the Folmsbees, too!)

Sherry lived her faith seven days a week and showed the world how a businesswoman could practice her faith in the public arena. We saw the infinite patience she had with older folks who were buying or selling their home. I think some of them would have been more than willing to adopt her! She smiled with her eyes as well as her lips and that smile was contagious.

There is a much overlooked verse in the prophet Daniel which expresses very well God's promise for Sherry. It reads, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." (Daniel 12:3)

With love and prayers,
Pastor Alan and Sylvia Beaver (Wendy and Jon-Marc, too.)
