“ Shirley & I met about 53 years ago when we each were Secretaries in a 1-Girl Office on the same floor of the 7 Hunter Street Building, Atlanta. She worked for the GA Forestry Commission and I worked for the State Literature Commission. We became good friends sharing many good times together at lunch. I changed employment leaving the Literature Commission, later returning to State Government where we re-kindled our friendship, even carpooling together along with others for many years. When Shirley Retired and I was still working seems our paths were different but still kept in contact as much as possible and or through Vickie. She fought a good fight but now she is at rest.
God's Blessing to Vickie, Debbie and their families along with Shirley's Brothers family.
