“Katie, I only knew your mama briefly but she was an angel. Sweetest kindest soul you would ever meet. This was the saddest news I received the other day. She was loved by many and cherished by all. I know that it hurts, but Jesus needed her just a little bit more, she's young and beautiful and whole as she stands at the pearly gates and waits for the rest, her and Tracey are up there catching up on all the news. I love you my deepest heartfelt prayers and condolences for you and the family, may God be with you all as you endure these next few days Lisa Crouch
