

Shirley Ann Mitchell Brewer

November 13, 1933 - July 26, 2022

BREWER – Mrs. Shirley Ann Mitchell Brewer, age 88 of Loganville, passed away on July 26, 2022.

Ann graduated from Grayson High School and DeKalb Beauty School. She worked for Sears and Rich's before opening her own hair salon in Decatur and later in Loganville which was fondly named "Ann's Purty Parlor" by her friends. The salon was always filled with laughter and lively discussions. Her clients invariably became friends, and at times, would drop by the salon, not for an appointment but to sit and catch up with others.

As a young girl, Ann met Inman Brewer and quickly fell in love. They married and raised two daughters together, Deborah and Pamela, and while there were trials to endure after the death of Deborah, she maintained an optimistic, resilient, and appreciative outlook on life that was rooted in her faith. Ann enjoyed meeting new people and had a welcoming personality. She never met a stranger and was happiest when she was surrounded by her friends and family enjoying a meal and conversation.

Ann grew up attending Ozora Baptist Church in Loganville where her unfaltering belief in God blossomed. A few years after getting married, she moved to Decatur and joined Woodlawn Baptist Church where she was a Sunday School teacher and director of the six-year-old children's department for over 20 years. She later returned home to Loganville and was a member of Corinth Christian Church for 45 years where she served on many committees. Ann served the Lord through her work in the church and in her relationships with family and friends. She always provided a listening ear and was steadfast in her compassion and devotion to others.

Ann was very creative and used those skills arranging flowers, sewing, scrapbooking, and refinishing antiques with additional hand painted décor. She adored working in her rose and vegetable gardens, and her greatest joy was sharing the harvest with others. When guests would visit, she would send them home with vegetables and their favorite colored rose snipped from her garden, and on days when a rose bud just began its bloom, Inman would cut and present her with her own favorite rose. Ann was a wonderful cook and was known for her delicious lemon pound cake. She would regularly cook two to three pound cakes a week – one for Inman, one for her father, and often one for those in need.

Mrs. Brewer is preceded in death by her loving husband of 72 years, Charles Inman Brewer; daughter, Deborah Elaine Brewer; parents, Lewis and Loma Mitchell; sisters, Dorothy Mitchell Irvin and Janice Mitchell Briscoe. She is survived by her daughter, Pamela Brewer Evans; grandson, Joshua Inman Evans; granddaughter, Sarah Ann Evans Bahraini and her husband Anoosh; brother, James Mitchell and his wife Joyce; and numerous beloved nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ I remember when we nieces and nephews would first get to any gatherings that the whole family had, Aunt Ann would most likely always grab your face and squeeze from cheek to cheek your lips out to say something like "I just love you" or for me it would be "Oh Connie Sue or Connie Bonnie how are you". She will dearly be missed.

I remember just like my sister would say, Ann would grab you by your face and hold you close and say, she just loved me and she would say God love ya. And I remember, she would catch the sales at Riches and buy all the girl socks undies, and all kind of clothes, between Aunt Ann and our mom, we always had clean cloth, and always had enough. Best Aunt that any kid could have. And last but not least, her and uncle Emmon, always would read the Bible to us before bed time. I will love Aunt Anne for all the good memories.

“ So sorry to hear this. My parents and the Brewers moved into houses on Maplehurst Dr approximately the same time and both our families joined Woodlawn Baptist Church. So many great memories in the neighborhood and at WBC. She will be missed but we know where she is and we will see her again!

Ann was a perfect example of a lovely Christian lady. My sympathy to Pam and family. She was a dear friend from Woodlawn.
