

Shirley Ramsay

October 2, 1947 - March 21, 2024

On March 21, 2024, Shirley Ramsay transitioned peacefully at the age of 76, leaving behind a legacy as vibrant as the Caribbean Sun. Born in the lively Carrington Village, Barbados, on October 2, 1947, Shirley's journey was one of joy, resilience, and unwavering faith.

From a young age, Shirley's spirit was ignited by the flame of Christianity, a gift passed down from her beloved mother, Verona. With this guiding light, she embarked on a life filled with purpose and devotion.

Throughout her remarkable journey, Shirley embraced her role as a pillar of strength for her family, tirelessly supporting them as a beloved vendor across the bustling landscapes of Barbados. Whether at Vauxhall Primary School, the lively Queen Elizabeth Park, the vibrant Crop Over events, or amidst the bustling streets of Bridgetown, Shirley's presence was a beacon of warmth and hospitality.

Shirley's love knew no bounds, extending to her cherished children: Winston, Steven, Tiffany, Cheviot, and Charlotte, who will forever carry her spirit in their hearts.

She shared an unbreakable bond with her late brother, Fredrick Ramsay, and leaves behind her beloved sister, Ometa Ramsay, as a testament to the enduring strength of family ties.

Her legacy is further illuminated by the radiant smiles of her grandchildren: Latiffa, Latisha, Steven Jr., Maverick, Carly, Keana, K'lah, K'moi, Christian, Chloe, and Aidan, each a testament to the love and warmth she shared with the world.

Shirley's memory will forever be enshrined in the hearts of her nieces and nephews, Sophia, Charmaine, Sonia, Samuel, Tracey Ramsay, Simon Marshall, O'Neal, Sandra, Cortez "Dovey" Ramsay, Judy and Mellissa Farley, Alfred Blenman, Lennox Blenman and countless others whose lives were touched by her boundless love and compassion.

Shirley's caring heart touch extending family Tasheima Liburd, Leann Jacobs, Ronnie E. Bass, Marlene, Harietta, Avis, and Frank Husband.

As we celebrate Shirley's remarkable journey, let us remember her not with sorrow but with joy, for her spirit lives on in the countless lives she touched. Though she may have bid farewell to this earthly realm, Shirley Ramsay will always be remembered, her light shining brightly in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know her.
