“ Shirley was a true Southern Belle. She was always such a hard worker. I will always have such great Summertime memories. As a little boy walking on a dirt trail to Shirley's with Kristie and Shane. We would play for hours on end. Catching lighting bugs and just being kids.

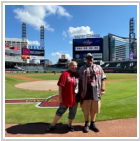

I wish I could Thank Shirley for letting us make so many childhood memories together.

Y'all are in my thoughts and Prayers.

God Bless,

“ When I think of New Hope rd, I think of aunt Shirley sitting under a pecan tree shucking silver queen & purple hull peas. I think of uncle Ben cutting a watermelon and making ice cream. I think of Granny drying apples and making pies. I think of Robin & Vickie shooting hoops on a dirt drive. I think of Ginger hiding Easter eggs. I think of a cotton top Shane riding in a black Chevy with his arm around his Papa. I think of Dad on a stallion named commander, and Mom burning down fence post. I think of Christmas time and uncle Gene saying grace, and aunt Mary's sweet little laugh. I think of cold winter mornings and a colt being born. I think of sharing a party line with a man named lunksford . And I think of laying in the grass watching a yellow plane fly over. What sweet memories of New Hope Rd. And what a preveilage to grow up there. What a gift
