“ My wife and I feel honored to have known Shirley Stringfellow for several years through our church, as well as her precious daughter Megan and faithful husband Mike. Shirley was a sweet and precious lady who loved the Lord and shared her faith with everyone she met. As her health started to deteriorate, she would call us often for specific prayer for healing and we would have a corporate prayer with her and Megan. She suffered much towards the end, but she is now healed and with her Lord Jesus, leaving behind a testimony of faith for others to follow. We will continue to pray for Megan and Mike for the Lord's peace and comfort as they deal with this loss and we will continue to be their good friends.
