“ OK Shirley this is round two. I wrote a book. Like you I am not a girl of few words! I MISS YOU AND I LOVE YOU!! What else can I say when my heart is breaking. Yes it is selfish because you are with God and your Mom, Joshua, my Daddy and Mr. Di Maio, Zia Lella, and so many other loved ones. I can see you all now and that makes me happy! Boy, Josh is in for a huge surprise...I know you will introduce him to the rest of the extended family!! He will think "Gosh Grandma are you the life of the party up here too?" JJ and Kirk need you to look out for them and I know you are so proud of them!! They looked so handsome Tuesday, I can see the love and pride in your eyes just like you were standing in front of me. I hurt so much at the loss of you Shirley and I can not begin to understand the pain of your family. I will pray for all of them because that is what you would have asked me to do. My heart hurts so much and at the same time I just remember your laugh, hugs, and accepting eyes and I feel peace. You were a huge part of my life and you are in my heart forever with more love than I could ever express. Look after us my sweet angel and I hope they gave you the most beautiful wings any angel ever had!!! Until we see each other again, your light on earth will not ever be forgotten!! With Love, Respect, and so much thanks that God let me have you for a little while. I miss you Shirley and I LOVE YOU!!!! Your little girl, Tonia!!!###imported-begin##Tonia Cagle###imported-end##

“ Shirley, the prettiest of my friends:

You have been and always will be a very good friend of mine. I know that you will be even closer to me and my girls since you are part of the real and eternal life now. May God take you to see the rest of my loved ones that left this world before you. I had a dream the morning before you left us. I saw my mom and Andrew very happy together as they were having a surprise party. I asked them why they were so happy and I woke up hearing myself laughing too. You see you touched so many lives and no one can forget you. I remember the first day you came down to my house on Moncrief Cr. I was almost scared to let you in since I was afraid to say a word in English, but you with you beautiful face and with you radiant smile put me at easy and we became the best of friends since then. We talked so much just about everything in the book . We agreed and disagreed but remained friends no matter what. I have a message to give you from my family in Italy. They want you to know that they loved you too very much. I will miss you here on earth, but I hope that one day we will see each other again in our Father's house.

Love you Shirley , you will always be in my heart, I think you know that.##imported-begin##Suzy Miller##imported-end##

“ On behalf of the entire Parris family please accept our deep sincere sympathy. Shirley was indeed a joy and as many have said the life of the party. She made beautiful cakes for my wedding shower and also helped my mom with my entire wedding reception. We had many fun times at her house in Decatur and the pool parties. "JJ" and Kirk will certainly have a guardian angel watching over them the rest of their lives. She is not gone she has moved to a wonderful home that all of us can only imagine and we will see her again along with all of our loved ones. May God wrap His loving arms around you through your family and friends during this very difficult time. Much love, Margaret Parris and family.##imported-begin##Margaret Parris##imported-end##

“ My heart breaks at the loss of really what was to me my second mom. As a young child it seems a day didn't go by without Shirley, J.J. and Kirk in it. Remember J.J. and Kirk how, on hot days, us kids would swim in your backyard pool all day. On weekends, us kids would spend the nights playing and playing at your house waiting for our parents to come home from their nights out dancing. How on birthdays your mom would make the best and funniest cakes! The disco ball in the basement, the parties at the pool, the parties at school when she dressed up like a witch for Halloween.....there's just not enough room here to share all of my memories. Again, my heart is breaking and I know it's just a fraction of what you are feeling. I find comfort, and hope that you both will also, in knowing that she is with God and with all those that she loved in life that have also passed on. I love you J.J. and Kirk.

“ I am so deeply saddened to hear of Shirley’s passing. I will always treasure the many wonderful happy memories that our families shared. She was always the life of the party (along with my dad, Roberto, of course!) My mother, lolanda, cherished her friendship with Shirley, which lasted well over 30 years. She was always there to help my mom out with anything she needed. Simple times and so very special. Growing up, she always made me feel as though I were a daughter to her. I will never forget her. God bless you all at this very diffucult time.
