“ Shirley McPhillips Hall

October 08, 2022 at 11:31 AM

“ Remembering Shirley - a lifelong friend. She was my First Holy Communion partner and several years later we were again reunited as classmates attending Immaculata H.S. She was my Maid of Honor, God Mother to my son, Tim and I introduced her to her future husband, George; our parents also became close friends. Shirley disliked being in a wheelchair and eventually bedridden, so for her death was a joyous release from pain and confinement. Although I will miss my good friend, I know she is happy now.

My deepest sympathy to my God Child, Susie Q, to the Hall family, Dorothy Catherine, Patrick, Cathleen and to Shirley's brothers, Hugh C. and Patrick McPhillips. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that Shirley is safely home holding hands with God. I will remember all of you in my prayers. Peace and Blessings.##imported-begin##Mary Louise Emmell##imported-end##
