“ Becky & Dana,

So sorry for the loss of Bro. Yancey. I know he is in a better place. I was thinking about him and your whole family a few weeks ago, when I heard someone at our church sing a song that Bro. Yancey used to sing when he was at the Dacula Church of God.

My husband and I will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I have so many great memories of Sydney. I remember you guys always playing rook, the white shoes, the dancing around he did. He was always so full of life and laughter. I remember both Sydney and Becky coming to my games, and even throwing me parties. Such great people. I know he has not felt well in a very long time, and I know that today he is healthy and not feeling any pain. Sydney touched so many lives and he will be dearly missed. He was there for my father at the end and I know that meant so much to my dad. I hope God can give all of you strength during this hard time and you can all smile knowing what a great father and husband this man was. God Bless all of you.###imported-begin##Curtis Vandeford###imported-end##
