“ We are keeping you in our prayers! I have many fun memories of seeing Silvin and you all at the Lunsford reunions so many years ago. All the women on the porch in rocking chairs and the men under shade trees sitting in folding chairs tell fish stories. I understand for my dad Howard that Silvin had cancer and was in hospis care. I'm sad for the family and friends for the separation they feel, but I rejoice with Silvin that he is nolonger sick; he has been healed and walking the streets of glory. What a great Lunsford Reunion they are having. I know a few Stills that are their taking part in that celebration. Our hearts and prayers are with you!

“ Dear Shirley and Mike,
I'm so sorry Dad Lunsford is gone; you were there for him, and I know that is gratifying to remember. May you have wonderful memories to cherish, and the support of friends and family to lean on now, and the comfort of faith throughout, and may the days ahead bring you increasing peace. It's a hard time, I know. Be assured of many prayers, and much love.
