“ My dearest Uncle Frank, you will be missed. I have so many fond memories of you as a child. You were such a prankster, but lots of fun. I remember commuting with you for six months when I was working in DC. I remember one night you and Aunt June stopped to look at a new car. Lo and behold, you drove off with the new car that was the size of a boat! I also remember how you got yourself in hot water with your aunts when you told one that she was your prettiest and most favorite. While life has kept the distance, you were always thought of and remember. Love you my dear sweet uncle. Patty
