“ I remember pottery class. Do you? You must because you always had a smile on your beautiful face when in that room. I switched to that class because I was having troubles at school, and having pottery for first period would've been a wonderful way to start off school days. Seeing you work was a blessing. With those steady hands, you could make a lump of clay into a magnificent work of art. God bless you Skylar. May you be at peace in your mothers arms.

“ I remember Skyler when she was a little girl. Her Mom brought her to the Doctor in the office where I work. The last time I saw her and her Mom was when we were all up at Scott's house for a Christmas Party, I think. We are so saddened that she lost her Mom at such an early age. God bless all of the people who now miss them both.

“ My condolences are with this precious family. I knew the Bowen girls as a child because they lived across the road from my Granny. They were always sweet to me. I believe that Skylar flew away to heaven and is resting in the arms of Jesus. I am praying for the entire family. It is a tragic thing and they need comfort that God can provide. :(

“ Skyler...do you remember Anime Club? I do. I remember you in the back, scared to reach out. I made it my mission to help you into the group. Your art was beautiful- it truly reflected what a magnificently kind and genuine person you were. It shreds me inside that you're gone now...that I didn't get to talk to you again or see your new characters. Peace be with you always sweetheart. I'll do my best to preserve your memory and may your family be at rest.

Your Fellow Anime Lover,

“ Dear Skylar,

You never knew me, but I was a friend of your Mom. How she loved you so! After her passing, I came to know your Aunt and your grandmother who embraced all of your Mom's friends. Through them, I was watching you grow up; surrounded by the love of your family. My heart is heavy with the sadness of the anguish you must have been holding inside. There is a very bittersweet solace that you are now in your Mama's arms again, while all of us left behind are struggling with so many unanswered questions and grief stricken hearts. Rest now beautiful girl in your Mama's arms, free from the pain that was heavy in your heart; and together watch over your loved ones.

“ I did not know this young lady but i am a Ducula dash attendee. I am so sorry to hear of this great loss. We r all praying for you and your family. Basically bullying needs to stop. I hate what it does to people. To the bully, pick on someone your own size. You might be a victim. So before you go and bully someone else. Think about how you might feel if you are or were bullied.
