

Sonia Greaux

March 9, 1948 - November 25, 2025

In Loving Memory of Sonia Martinez Greaux

On November 24, 2025, surrounded by love and prayer, Sonia Martinez Greaux went home to be with her Lord and to be reunited with her beloved husband, Roland H. Greaux, and her parents, Paula and Hermenegildo Martinez. She was born on March 9, 1948 and lived a life marked by faith, courage, kindness, and a deep love for her family.

Sonia was incredibly smart and a lifelong learner. She was an avid reader of faith inspired books and health and wellness, always seeking wisdom, understanding, and ways to better care for others. She was an entrepreneur at heart. She began her career working for the Governor of St. Thomas, then became a real estate agent, eventually opening and running her own real estate business. She also devoted many years to helping her husband run Lilburn Foreign Car Repairs, supporting him as owner and operator and contributing to the family business with the same dedication and strength that she brought to every role in her life. Her work ethic, integrity, and determination inspired everyone around her.

Sonia was small in stature but mighty in presence. Her strength was quiet yet powerful, her faith unshakable, and her love steady and true. She adored her husband, Roland, with her whole heart, and together they built a life grounded in devotion, unity, and unwavering commitment. Even after his passing, she carried his memory with tenderness and spoke of him with a love that never dimmed. Above all, she loved the Lord and lived her life with a deep, sincere faith that guided her every step. Those who knew her felt her grace, her warmth, and the comforting peace she carried wherever she went.

Above all, Sonia was a devoted wife, mother, Nana, sister, and friend. Her greatest joy was her family. She created a home filled with warmth, laughter, and unconditional love, and she never stopped praying for and cheering on the people she loved.

Sonia is lovingly survived by her daughter, Melissa Greaux Cannon; her son, Roland H. Greaux II and his wife Amber Greaux; her grandchildren, Dylan H. White and Brayden H. White; Dylan's partner Caitlin McHan and Brayden's partner Lauren Wood; and her great grandson, Oakland H. White, who brought her so much joy.

She is also survived by her sister Luz A. Morón and her husband Robert G. Morón; nephews Robert G. Morón II and Christopher G. Morón; her sister Paula M. Buice and her husband David Buice; her brother Gildo A. Martinez and his wife Connie Martinez; and her nieces Andrea N. Buice and Ashlee Labarron; as well as extended family and dear friends who will miss her deeply.

Sonia's legacy is one of faith, strength, and love. Those who were blessed to know her will carry her memory in their hearts forever.

“He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” – Revelation 21:4

I am deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Sonia Greaux. I didn't "know" her when I was a kid but I knew of her and she knew my family and always commented --beautiful commentary, and uplifting, positive thoughts-- on my FB page. I always thought to myself, "what a remarkable lady, and maybe one day I will be lucky enough to sit down and have a conversation with her about our shared Caribbean experiences and histories. Sadly that will not happen. I share my deepest condolences with all of you in Sonia's family. How lucky we all were to know her. God Bless, Very Truly yours, Christine Jowers
