“ Spencer was my loving son. I miss him so much everyday. He was a tender-hearted caring young man who was very giving to others. He was so incredibly smart and so creative. I loved him so much and I know he is in the presence of God with his Mom who went before him. I pray I will see them both again one day in Heaven.

“ I will always remember Spencer as one of the brightest students I ever taught when he was in the Gifted and Exceptional Student Program at Walnut Grove Elementary. He had a love of learning, a delightful personality, and a contagious smile. Sending my love and prayers to his family at this time. Patricia Moon, former teacher.
