“ I never got the chance to say good bye. Then again we never do. Stacey and I were always together for 5 years, god-father to my two older children. When I found out about you passing it crushed me, I wasn't in ATL anymore and it took several people to find me to let me know what was going on. I have only great memories of you and how much fun we had together whether we were at work RTG, or just out. I love you always and you will never be forgotten. You are truly special to everyone that you have come in contact with and although your time was cut a little short; only GOD knows why, but just know you won't have to be apart of this world anymore because you are laid to peace. We love you always and forever. Your best friend, Nicole.##imported-begin##Nicole "Nykki" Lee##imported-end##

“ I remember Stacey well in high school and am just now hearing of his passing. I'm so sorry for the grief you must still be going through. Stacey had an easy way of lighting up a room. I enjoyed being in theater with him and won't forget how he touched people's lives.##imported-begin##Kim Wagner Miller##imported-end##

“ Cousin Kathy and Jack there are no words or expressions that can take the place of my love for Stacey. I enjoyed the good times, bad times, and the laughter that we shared. We might not have seen each other as often but the times we did are rememberable. I love each and every one of you. May God Bless!##imported-begin##Mrs. Tameca Henderson and Family##imported-end##

“ Kathy,

My prayers are with you, Jack, Junior, and the rest of your family. I remember when we use to compare notes on our "77 model sons" and pray for their safekeeping. And now you know that Stacey is, indeed, safe for all eternity. I pray that this knowledge will comfort you in your time of grief.

“ WOW! Where do I even start. Stacey was my light in high school.
He knew just the right words to say when someone was having a bad day. His smile and crazy attitude lit up the room. I have so many fond memories of Stacey, thru band, chorus (NY Trip), just walking thru the halls of BHS and hearing Stacey's laugh made people smile. Stacey was truly one of my dearest and closest friends. Even after I joined the Marines, Stacey and I kept in touch. I will miss you dearly my friend. I will ALWAYS cherish the fond memories that we created. To your family-Stacey was a wonderful person, inside and out. My thoughts and prayers are here for you during this time of need. I wish I could be there for the funeral, please know, if I was not in Afghanistan right now, I would be there in a heartbeat.
Stacey-you will ALWAYS be remembered! I love you will miss you.
You can rest easy now.##imported-begin##Laura Bigley##imported-

“ I've known Stacey for a few years now, and not a day went by I stopped thinking about him. He managed to always bring a smile to everyone's day, even if he had just met you. He constantly made you laugh. The epitome of a social butterfly. He knew everyone. He impacted my life in such little time that I knew him. Laughter is all you need. (oh & a little fashion according to him). Rest In Peace buddy. I'm definitely missing you.##imported-begin##Amanda Duncan##imported-end##

“ Although it has been since 1998 since I have seen Stacy I remember how sweet he was. He made friends with everyone no matter what clique you were in or how popular you were. He was so polite too, my mom loved him and would smile when she would hear him come in the door yelling "Hey Ms. Brannon look so nice today!".
