Stan was a really talented singer and drummer and taught me a lot during the short time we played in the same band in the late '60s. I'll always remember that as one of the best groups of musicians I ever worked with.

Stan was a talented guy and an all-around good person. I had classes with him at Tucker and followed his band then. They were considered one of the best in our area. My sincereest condolences to his family.

“ I remember Stan at Tucker High and the Ruffin's band performing at various venues over the years and seeing Stan, Hank, Gary Ruffin and Randy Bugg as the band SMOKE RISE performing the Rock Opera St. Joan while they were under Paramount Records. Worked construction building custom homes with Stan for JC and Johnny Bugg Construction Co. Stan was a Hoot always had a great sense if humor. I myself regret not reaching out and not visiting Stan. My Condolences and prayers to the Ruffin Family. Stan will be missed
