“ To my other family....your momma was like a momma to me and treated me as one of her own. Some of my happiest memories were spent at your home when Louise and I were growing up. She was a very dear person and will always have a special place in my heart. I pray God's peace on each one of you. Louise, so sorry you have to go through this on your birthday. You and your entire family will always be special to me. My deepest sympathy, Patricia###imported-begin###Patricia (Stewart) Davis###imported-end##
