“ What a wonderful and touching tribute. I did not know Steve very well. I met he & Sarah at a new church. Since I was attending the church alone, they were familiar faces for me each week. That was a comfort. We soon became friends and I looked for them every week just to say hi and get a huge. Steve seemed to have a big heart. I miss seeing him and trust that he is now in the presence of the God who made him.

Blessings on the entire family.

“ What precious memories I have of Sarah and Steve in Miami and the sweetness that both of them have shown to me and all of those who have come in contact with them. Friends like them are few and far between in these days. I will treasure the memories of both of you forever. My love and God's blessings continue on you, Sarah and family. I also played some basketball against Mark in the church league we had back then as well as knowing him while he worked at the FCA in Coral Gables with Joe Oliver.##imported-begin##Joseph Pereira##imported-end##

“ Dearest Sarah, Carol, and Mark, I know Patty contacted you yesterday but after viewing the tribute I just wanted to add my thoughts. We shared a lot of great memories with you all while here in Miami. The golf days at Miami Springs, Le Jeune, and even at Doral. The meals together afterwards at one home or the other. Carol, our sitter for the girls. As a grand father, I love the pictures of Steve with his little ones, I confess to a tear in my eyes at the sight. Such a kind, gentle, patient man as I remember him. One who loved the Lord too, and together as parents instilled the same in Carol and Mark. My heartfelt love for you all in our loss. May God richly bless and comfort us all as he is with the Lord. I wonder if their is gold in heaven?##imported-begin##Henry Ketzle##imported-end##

“ To Our Dear Sarah, Carol, Mark and All the Family,

Our special memories of Steve come to mind because of pictures we have of him on the patio of our home in Miami. He's holding our daughter, Pamela, who was so enjoying his attention! We all so enjoyed being in your home and you in ours. Carol was a great baby sitter, too. Other pictures we have are of Steve teaching Pamela and Tricia to play golf on the Miami Springs Golf Course. We can also see him, in pictures in our minds, directing the children at Southwest Community Church around the AWANA game circle. We enjoyed seeing the picture tribute of his life. He was a blessing to us and to many. Having just celebrated Resurrection Sunday, we cannot but picture, again in our minds, Steve walking in heaven with his Jesus! He truly had a wonderful way with his children, his grandchild, our children and all children around him. He was gentle, gracious, patient, loving and kind. We miss him, but look forward to seeing him again. May it be soon!

In Jesus, Henry and Patty Ketzle

“ If you could get into heaven by being a good person, Steve would be at the front of the line. Fortunately, Steve secured his place in heaven not by goodness, but by faith in Jesus Christ. WE continue to pray for all of you.##imported-begin##Chris & Jeanette Fruitticher##imported-end##

“ Sarah,

Lynn and I are praying that each day that goes by, the Lord will give you and your family peace and comfort. Steve has now passed through a door we will all pass through and you and your family will be reunited with him one day.

God understands your grief and He will give you the strength you need to make it. He wants you to lean on Him now and in the days to come. Christ said that in this life we would have trials and tribulations but that we should fear not, because He has overcome the world.

Your friends,

David and Lynn##imported-begin##David and Lynn Smith##imported-end##

“ What wonderful fond memories I have of visits with Steve on the phone as a new Teaching Leader for Bible Study Fellowship. He was always warm and encouraging to my heart. I always felt like I had spoken with one of my nearest and dearest friends. It was my joy and privilege to pray for him. I am still in awe of his courage and dependence on the Lord all through his journey. Sarah, what Christ like love and compassion you shared with Steve every day. What a continuing example you are to all of us. Steve leaves a precious legacy behind in his children and the many lives he touched. Heaven is richer having him there and I look forward to seeing him there one day. May the good Lord bless and comfort each of you at this time.##imported-begin##Kate Day##imported-end##

“ Dear Sarah, Steve was always such an inspiration to me, always faithful and willing to do whatever he could to help. I never heard him complain. It was never about him, but always about what God was doing through him. You were always by his side. You, God and his family were his strength. I know you will miss him dearly and many others will also. God bless you and comfort you in the days ahead. Thanks for including me in the email. I think of you often with fond memories.##imported-begin##Jackie Nixon##imported-end##

“ Sarah,
My sympathies to you and your family. I remember Steve as being a real sweetheart. As I said in an earlier note, I just wish we had all spent SOME time together, after we were grown. Not meant to be, I suppose?

Love to Steve's (Bubba's, Pancho's) memory and to you and his much loved children.

“ Sarah, I grew around the corner from "Pancho" in Miami on 40th St. He was our neighborhood Hero and Sonny was always our protector. He was always kind to us younger kids, he pulled our bikes from the street and always had a wave and smile on his face for everyone. What a wonderful man throughout his life. He lead many of us to become Christians and never knew it. How lucky you were to share your life with him!##imported-begin##Dorcas Saylor Tate##imported-end##
