“ I met Steve while I was working for Kroger Pharmacy with his wife. He would always bring her coffee. All of us have come a long way since then, Wenda, his wife became a pharmacist . He went from working at Wolf Camera to be a great real estate agent. I was so proud of both of their accomplishments. My husband and I plus the Baileys would go on double dates before their children arrived. Steve and Mike would share drinks and decide if they liked it, Steve introduced my husband to Grapeful Deads, Mike introduced him to Bourbon. Steve and I also introduced Wenda to my 2 labs. Wenda was afraid of dogs prior to this. My 2 loving, goofy labs, along with Steve's guiding hand helped Wenda get comfortable and love dogs and eventually adopt their own fur baby. I am so sorry for his wife and children that he was taken too early from them. I hope his memory can live on in all our hearts.
We love you Steve.

“ I am so very sorry we are out of town already when his visitation is tomorrow. He was a dedicated, resourceful real estate agent and our home would not have been possible without him. He was a good friend, who I did not spend enough time with. I so looked forward to another dinner at Pig Tails or taking the whole family on the boat he helped make possible. My heart is broken for Wenda and the girls.

Big hugs,
