“ I woke today with only you my dear brother on my mind, in my heart and streaming down my face of tears. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you and maybe a tear or maybe a smile but either way you my brother will never be far because I've locked you deep in my heart for eternity. I LOVE YOU, I MISS YOU and I'LL ALWAYS BE YOUR LITTLE SISTER. Yes I kept telling you I'm your big sister but you wouldn't have it so there you go it's out there for everyone to read. To my family and friends remember today not as the day my brother, son or father died but the day he would want us to celebrate his life and all he meant to us. Don't forget to eat chips and salsa and have the tallest BEER served and for sure your heart will smile.

I LOVE YOU STEVEN GEORGE RISCALLA your loving sister Valerie.

RIP for you deserve peace always!!!

“ Steve was one of the greatest men I've ever known. He wasn't just a brother-in-law; he was a friend. Charming, intelligent, witty, trustworthy, honorable, caring, giving and patient are just a few ways to describe the incredible person he was. I've admired Steve since the day I met him. Steve had a positive influence on everyone around him and our lives have all been touched by his presence. This unthinkable tragedy has devastated all that loved him and none of our lives will be the same without him. The voids we all feel in our hearts today will slowly heal but will never go away and a part of Steve will live on in each of our hearts. I pray that we all think about Steve and the way he treated those he loved as an example in our own lives.

Greg, Steve had so much respect for you. He also thought of you as a close and true friend and he didn't say that about many people! We always had such great fun with you and Stacey. Thank you for all of your love and support through this difficult time. I am sure Steve is smiling as he looks down upon the two of you.

Oh he was the love of mine too. We were so excited about the new adventures ahead of us. Now I just want the world to stop as mine has. It just isnt fair that the world continues on.

Molly - April 21, 2020 at 03:31 PM

Molly, I am so sorry for your loss. I still can't believe he's gone.

Danna Odum - April 24, 2020 at 01:28 AM

8 months later and I still can't believe it. I just don't want to believe it.
