“ Mr and Mrs. Young,

I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter Sunny May. I am so lucky to have had the opportunity to be her teacher even if it was for a short time. She touched my life while she was in my class and showed me what true happiness really was. She had the most beautiful smile, adorable giggle, and the best personality. Thank you for bringing her into my life. She brought so much sunshine to my life and I know she did yalls as well. She was so lucky to have such a wonderful family like yall. I am continuing to pray for you all. Every time I look up at the sunny sky I think of her dancing around on her feet in Heaven because she loved to dance in my class.

Always,

“ Jason, Crystal and Family,

I am praying so very hard for the Lord to give you strength and His comfort during the days ahead. My church(Greenwood Baptist) and I have been praying for God's will ever since Kristin first called me days ago.

What a privilege you had to introduce Sunnymay to stories about Jesus and to share your abundant love with her. Just think - she has a perfect body now. How happy she must be.
