“ We play a music game every Friday night in Facebook's Mo Joe Radio music room called "Frydaze Record Roulette". For several years, Susan was a regular player who made many wonderful contributions to our musical cause. I remain in stunned awe of her constant courage, love, light, and the way in which she just never let herself be held down by anyone or anything and was such a huge giver of everything good back to everyone she knew. This is a lady I truly admire, and from whom I learned an awful lot in a fairly short period of time. We all miss you so very much, Susan. Thank you for all the love and music you so freely shared with us, and all without hesitation. You were somebody to be seriously admired.
