“ It was always fun being around Susie and her family. I met her through her sister, Robin. We enjoyed several suppers and theatre shows together over the last few years. She often said, “Well, there you go!” which was her final statement on things. My heart and prayers go out to you, Molly and all of your family. She is with you in love always.
Lovingly, Robin and Randy Qualman

“ Susie and I were great friends for more than 50 years. We shared our children's ups and downs. We shared our own ups and downs. One of my saddest days was when Susie moved to Covington. No more shared everyday occurrences but we kept up with each other. We took trips together. We even took trips to one of her favorite places the gambling hall She always won I always lost. But the joy and fun together is irreplaceable. She-had the most wonderful sense of humor. Loved her family, friends, and the joy of life. Heaven you are blessed to have her.

“ I was the manager of a unit at the IRS and I had the pleasure of having Susan in that unit. She always had such a sunny, funny outlook and so many funny and interesting stories! She was so kind and caring and even invited me to Thanksgiving dinner at her home when she knew I would be alone that day. Her kindness and caring is something I will never forget -- nor will I forget her many funny conversations! I know she will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.
