“ I keep thinking about one of the first few times I met you. You were in Kimmie's gold car smiling big in front of my parents house. I knew right then you were beautiful inside and out.

“ Nanny although we didn't see each other's often as we would like I shared a special bond with you. You were the only person I felt that knew exactly what I went through day in and day out and got me through some of my hardest days. Your resilience, strength and beauty you showed through all the pain gave me my strength. I find peace in knowing you are no longer in pain. You were a remarkable woman and was everything a Godmother should be and beyond and I will miss you deeply. I find my comfort knowing that even though you aren't physically here you will still get me through my hard days and will be with me for some of the best days to come. I love you Nanny. Rest peacefully.

“Susan, my dear sister-in-law, I will always cherish the times we shared during football season with you, Nicky & your family pulling for your Bulldogs, with me cheering for my Tigers! You always had such a sweet smile and great sense of humor, even through all your pain & suffering. You will forever be in our thoughts and truly missed, until we meet again. Rest in peace now, and go with the Grace of God. Love always, Keith

“To my sister, your were so strong, very humble, and a beautiful person inside and out. So kind and never wanted to trouble anyone. Just like Mom. Thank you for watching over me when we were little. Wish we lived closer to be there for you, but I know you were in good hands with Bob, Nicky and Kimmie. Thank you guys for taking care of my sister. Now you are in the hands of our Lord, with Mom and Dad by your side. I love you Susie and I will all miss you very much. Rest in Peace my Sweet Susie.

“ To my sister Susie, I am ever grateful for the wonderful years we shared as family. A sister is a joy that cannot be taken away. Once she enters your life, she is there forever No matter how many miles apart, I always loved you ❤️. You are now my eternal angel and you certainly earned those wings. You carried your cross with grace and dignity. I am blessed to call you my sister. I will not dwell on your death but celebrate your new eternal life with mom and dad. May you Rest In Peace with the Lord I will miss you always. Love Debbie

“ To my loving sister, Susie,
Words can not ever express how much I enjoyed growing up with you in such a loving family over the years! You added so much richness to all our lives & as a sister, I am so grateful for your never-ending love. Your beautiful & loving family has been your strength & support through your time away from us. But no distance could ever truly keep us apart & we have held you close. Our loving memories together will live on in our hearts & minds for the rest of our lives. Rest in knowing you are now with Our Father in Heaven and He has welcomed you with open & loving arms. Love you now & forever, Susie. 🕊️❤️🙏
