

Tamerria (Tami) Nicole Jackson

October 16, 1982 - June 18, 2025

Tamerria Nicole Jackson, affectionately known as "Tami" or Co-Cocoa among her loved ones, was born on October 16, 1982, to Mrs. Donna Duncan, fathered by Carlton D. Jackson, in Duluth, Georgia. She left this world on June 18, 2025, leaving behind cherished memories and a legacy of warmth and kindness. Raised in Buford, Georgia, Tamerria completed her early education there before graduating from Central Gwinnett High School.

With a vibrant personality that could light up any room, Tamerria had a unique ability to connect with others, making friends wherever she went. Her faith was an integral part of her life, as she accepted Christ at a young age. An avid hiker, she found joy in the great outdoors, often sharing her adventures with those around her. One of her greatest joys was the birth of her daughter, Maiah Grace, who became the center of many heartfelt stories shared by Tamerria.

Tamerria is preceded in death by her grandparents, Willie James Horne and Eddie Mae Horne, as well as her godmother, Brenda S. Nuckles. She is survived by her beloved daughter, Maiah Grace Rios; her mother, Donna M. Duncan (Pastor Mark Duncan); her brother, Carlton M. Jackson; her friend, Norberto Rios; along with a multitude of family and friends who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.
