“ Deborah and Tommy, my heart has been very heavy for you both with so much loss in such a short time. I feel so blessed and honored to have know Tamesa. This past Christmas brunch with all of you really hit me with her. I have never known such a sweet unselfish person as she was. We think and covet on such a large scale but Tamesas world was excited over her bolo paddle in her Christmas stocking, a piece of fudge. The simple things we all take for granted, she would glow over. The Tamesas of the world are our gifts from God to slow down a bit and see the world a little differently. Look at what you have and celebrate the quality of life God has so generously given you. We all need a few more Tamesa gifts. She leaves me remembering the little things give the big life the most value. Without a doubt that sweet innocence is smiling in a garden seeing every color amazed at the butterflies all loving her. She is with Jesus. I'm so sorry I'm ill and could not be there to celebrate her life but know that I love you and am thinking about you.
