“ Mr. Teddy,

Words can't describe how much I miss you. It's been 2 months now but I feel like it was only yesterday. You were so nice to me the very first time April brought me over to meet yall. I was a little scared at first, but in no time what so ever, I felt like we were buds. We'd have our man time out in the garage at night with a cold beer and talk about anything and everything. Everything has changed and I feel like I'm missing something inside me. I miss coming over to the house and being able to just hang out with you. Most of all, I miss our time down at the "Country" We were there last weekend and it just wasn't the same. I remember how we would unpack, grab a beer, and head straight to the barn. We'd sit out pretty late at night on the dock, just drinking a beer and looking at the stars. It's still an amazing place to go and get away but it's just not the same. I know it was your favorite place to go. I missed hearing the grass being cut when I woke up on Saturday when we were down there but don't worry, we're going to take care of everything down there for ya. I sat outside by myself on the dock just thinking about old times Friday night. I'm so glad yall brought me along down there with yall every time you went. I miss going by the Varsity on the way down there and getting Courtney a "Chillybun" haha. Well, I just wanted to get all of this off my chest and let you know that everything is going to be ok. We love you and miss you.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Ted McFarland:

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we all know what it feels like to lose one of our loved ones to death. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through.

He promises that the day is soon to come in which he will wipe the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5)

He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29)

Until his words are fulfilled may each of you continue to take comfort in him.###imported-begin##Lenette Horton###imported-end##

“ Dear Mcfarlands,
I am so sorry for the lost of a wonderful father and husband. Losing someone close to you is a very difficult thing to deal with. The bible gives many comfort when going tthrough times like these. passages like Ps. 55:22 shows that we should let God deal with our problems. The bible also helps us to see that when Our love one dies we have the hope of seeing them when they are ressurected right here on earth in Acts 24:15. Ps 37:29 show that the righteous will posses the earth. Isa 48:18 shows that the earth that we live in was not built for nothing. SO yes we wlii live on earth. Not the condtion that we live in now , but Rev 21:3,4 talks about a better condition. One that we should have live in from the beginning. So take comfort in the bible promises.##imported-begin##Junia Prosper##imported-end##

“ Julie, Courtney & April, my heart is broken. Ted loved you girls so much. I cannot imagine your world without him. You must feel lost right now, but I know Ted is singing in each of your hearts; giving direction and letting you know he is with you. He was a good man....we will all truly miss him.

May each morning sunshine warm your heart with memories of his love.

So wish I was there to give you a hug right now. Love you and miss you tons!

“ Ted buddy, I am going to miss you. During the time we were planning the 30 year high school reunion, I got to know you better than I ever did in school and my friend, I consider it an honor to have you as my friend. While I was in the hospital and afterwards you called and kept in touch via e-mail and I greatly appreciated it. Your family will be in my heart and prayers and they can call me if anything is needed.

I love ya like a brother buddy.

I will see you at another time and we both will be in a place where we are whole again.###imported-begin###Hal White (FPSH 76)###imported-end##

“ Ted pretty much knew me as Debbie Giannetti and we spent many days working together, laughing about kids, talking about life's issues, and poker games. Ted will certainly be sorely missed and Julie and girls our thoughts are prayers are with you.

Deepest Sympathies,
