“ Terry was such a generous, down to earth guy & we'll never forget how he helped us, without hesitation, even though he'd never met us, simply because I'm a good friend of Sharon's. Terry spent hours on the phone with Kevin, over several days, helping him diagnose & fix our AC problem & even helped us get the part on his business account! He shared his expert knowledge with Kevin & now that is something he can always use in the future.

Terry will be missed and we are praying for strength for you all.

“ *Dearest Mary, Brittany, Graham and Families...
Terry was a presence larger than life!
The minute I met him he had a big smile and welcomed me with a warm heart. His love and generosity to those he loved was apparent.
I will miss the times that we could talk for hours.
We shared a kin ship having the same birthday that we often joked about. We shared a quad bday. along with his twin and grandson Bailey. We raced to wish each other happy birthday first!!
There will be a void in so many people's lives and he will be greatly missed. I hope his legacy lives on with all of the wonderful stories there are to share.
We both love food. Terry... I hope you're enjoying the biggest Alaskan King Crab Legs up in Heaven. Please save some for me!!*

“ Such a cut guy in high school. He was my boy friend for 3 whole days. We spoke last month on the phone going over a few good times, from days gone by. Rest in peace buddy, just rest.

To the family: sadden hearts I know...just breath. You were graced with his presents.
