“ I don't have to tell you what is going on and how I feel, you know. I miss you every day. Did you ever know how much I love you. See you soon.

“ I knew Terry for a short few years when I was very young. My sisters and I spent a lot of time with him. Playing outside. Making up games. Just having fun. Terry also helped me learn to tie my shoes. At 37, I've certainly not forgotten Terry. I never will. My thoughts and prayers are with him and his family.##imported-begin##Scott Collin##imported-end##

“ Dear Shelbi,
I just found out about your father's death. I send you my deepest sympathy. I remember you and your dad so well, and remember most what a great father he was to you. I hope my e-mail is attached. Please feel free to get in touch anytime. I would have been at the funeral if I had known. Alyssa told me this morning.

Love,

“ With each day that has gone by this week, you have taken over every second of my thoughts. Question after question. I want to understand. I just want you here again. I know you are happy where you are, but I want you happy here. Beneath the rough exterior you were one of the most gentle, caring, loving, generous, sweetest people and I was lucky enough to have you as an uncle. I wanted to hear you say "Hey baby" when you answered my calls and "love you" when we got off the phone one more time. Please get the peace you need. I promise to take care of Shelbi and let her keep in her memory the person you really are. I am so sorry you had to endure the pain. I really am. Rest now, the battle is over. I love you so so so so much. Not ready to say goodbye....
