“ Will never forget, when we were neighbors back in the early 90's. Halloween night, all our children were so young. My parents came over to walk with us and as we made our way around the neighborhood we stopped and knocked on y'all's door. The door flung open and there was Terry with all his hair..teased up. Looking just like a huge Lions mane. It was Awesome. Jamey ran straight up and hugged him. I remember my dad saying "Wow" what an outfit and wig... as I laughed and said that ain't no wig that's "RUG" and that's his hair !!

Love ya Rug, rest in peace Brother!
