“ I just found out about Tom's passing. I worked in Corporate at Jefferson Pilot Communications and I can attest.....Tom was a true professional in all his interactions. On one of our annual management meetings, my hubby and I got to spend more time with him. I loved his stories and he beamed when he introduced his beautiful wife. Over the years as I had more interaction with him, I knew if he said it...it was true and you could take it to the bank. I know you were saddened to lose him physically.....but he will always live in your hearts. ❤️

“ Since departing radio (WQXI) in 1974 I have done business with Nobel Laurates and CEO's of the top the top Fortune 500 companies in the Chemical Industry and started my own chemical company. Needless to say I have worked with some remarkable people. Tom Giglio was equally tallented, gifted and recognized within his industry & community. I consider myself very fortunate to have known and worked with Tom. He wil forever be indelibly etched in my mind and will always remain alive between my ears.
