“ Tommy was the first person that I met when I moved into the Hamilton Pointe Subdivision. He was very friendly. That was the way Tommy treated everyone that crossed his path. If he saw me outside, working in the yard, or struggling with a yard tool, he would come out and ask to help.
He loved his trips to the Waffle House, his truck, his dog, Sky, and most of all his sister, Joann, that took the best care of him that any person could have done.
He will be missed, but I know that God is taking care of him now.
