“ Tim & Jeff,
Belated condolences on behalf of the Drerup Family of Van Buren, OH. I hope you will remember us from your very young years. My Dad, John, passed away early last August, yesterday would have been his birthday, and today I came across your dad's obit that I clipped from the paper back in Sept. Shame on me for not taking the time to contact you then. My brothers Steve, Dan, Russ and I all have fond memories of your family when our parents would get together for fun. I remember your dad always called me "Blondie". God bless you and your family. All of us (except Dan) are on FB so look us up if you want to, we'd love to share some memories! Hope you get this message.

“ Will always have great memories of Uncle Tom and growing up on Midland and Allen avenues with my cousins. How we stayed out of juvenile detention has to be a miracle. Summer vacations, riding bikes, cookouts, and Christmas were the best!
