I am deeply saddened to hear of Gene’s passing. Gene Simonton was truly a remarkable man—both as a dedicated Air Force CMSgt and as a friend. He served his country with pride and integrity, and carried that same spirit into every part of his life.

I will always remember our trip to Italy, celebrating the wedding anniversary of close friends. Those moments captured his love of life, his warmth, and genuine joy in being surrounded by friends. He was a good-hearted gentleman in every sense, and his presence made every experience richer.

Gene will be remembered with great respect, fondness, and gratitude for the life he lived and the lives he touched. May he rest in eternal peace, and may the heavens welcome him with the honor and grace he so truly deserves. Blue skies and tailwinds my friend...Col Miriam Michael, USAF

“ I went to high school with Gene. He was my first date. His mother drove us to the Snowball dance at Shamrock High School in the ninth grade. He also walked a mile from his house to mine to bring me a Christmas present, a giant white stuffed dog. He was always a gentleman and smiled a lot. I don't think I ever saw him mad. I later met up with him for lunch about 40 years later when I attended a conference in Washington DC and again at a high school reunion when he and Jennifer started dating. He was one of the nicest persons I had the privilege of knowing and always fun to be around. My prayer for his family is to feel God's arms around you at this time and to be comforted by your memories of Gene.
