“ Love and prayers to all the family--Lynn and Jewell Farmer

“ I also have not seen Tommy in over 50 years. In our early youth we were almost inseparable. We walked together to Ponce de Leon Elementary school every morning, played baseball at "red field" adjacent to the railroad track, built tree houses and just enjoyed being boys and getting into our share of mischief. I have many fond memories. My older brother Rick and his brother Bill were best of friends and have remained in touch over the years. Rick and I extend our deepest sympathy to the Dickey family and friends.

“ I have not seen Tommy in over 50 years, but I still remember playing with him and his brother Bill on Drexel Ave in Decatur, Ga when we were kids. My prayers go out to the family.
