“ Some of my favorite childhood memories were those spent at Aunt Tib's place. Always smiling, always caring, hugging, laughing, and cooking something delicious for you. She was loved more than she knew.

Ms. Tibbie and my Mom (Stella Sutton) were good friends. Before my Mom passed, I used to bring her to visit with Tibbie. I would stay and listen to them talk about things now and long ago. They really enjoyed each others company. After Mom died, I would still come visit Ms. Tibbie every so often. She was such a sweet woman. I will keep her family in my prayers. They have lost such a central part of their family. But, Tibbie is with Don again and that is comforting. Fonda Jones (Susie Sutton)
