“ Good morning my sweet husband. Today you would have been 69. I want to wish you a Happy Birthday. You're not here to share this special day with us. You are in our thoughts every day. You will always be remembered for the good man you were. You so loved us all and we miss you so very much. Our family will share this day together, remembering you. You were the most precious husband, Dad and "Pop". We will love you forever. Until we meet again, your loving wife T.##imported-begin##Marie Lloyd##imported-end##

“ July 3rd 2010

Well Pop, we did you proud today. The golf cart was decorated and we were in the parade at River Vista. Ironic isn't it that the resort celebrated on the 3rd this year.

Mackenzie and Vicki threw candy to the campers lining the roadways. Tim and Trent drove the golf cart I was extra decoration...haha

We honored you Pop, we knew the golf cart would have been in the parade last year. You had worked so hard to get everything ready.

We reminisced all weekend about previous years that we had enjoyed doing just what we did this year, with one big difference.

You were not with us to enjoy the fun this year.

Mackenzie asks about you "her Pop" all the time, and she misses you. Trent doesn't know about his Pop yet, but we can guarantee he will.

We will always love and miss you.

I have loved you for 47 years and will continue to love you for the rest of my life.

This weekend we reached a milestone. I can't stop counting the days since you left us. You knew how much we all loved you. We continue to remember you with memories of days gone by and create new memories in honor of you.

I will love you for the rest of my life and beyond.

Forever in my thoughts. T##imported-begin##Marie H

“ A new year, it's been 6 months since you left me. I miss you so very much. I'm told time heals the wounds. I don't know if or when that will happen.

Well our new Grandson will be here any day, he has a name now, Trent David. I know you would be so proud that he carries your name and carry on the Lloyd name.

I have loved you for so long and will never stop.

The love of your life. T##imported-begin##Marie Lloyd##imported-end##

“ I just found out yesterday about your your loss, and I can't even begin to put into words how deeply shocked and sad I was to hear of Tim's passing. I have had the privilege of knowing, working, and learning from Tim for many years. He was a great mentor for me, and I will always hold close all of the lessons, and memories we shared. If there is anything i can do to help you and your family, please let me know.

“ Today we would have celebrated our anniversary. You have been my friend, my confidante and soul mate and my lover.

We were not told life was going to be easy. I never imagined losing you so soon. I always thought we would grow old together. We had 44 years together as husband and wife. It was love at first sight and that was 46 years ago.

We have memories galore and I will treasure every one of them. My love forever, Till.##imported-begin##Marie ##imported-end##

“ To: Marie, Timmy, Vicky, and McKenzie

You are in our thoughts and prayers. Brenda and I will always cherish the recent visit we had with Marie and Tim - it had been entirely too many years since we had seen each other. Even though the years had passed, it was instantly like we had never been apart. The entire Lloyd family made our move in 1984 to the Snellville area one of the most enjoyable of all the moves our family has made. We will be forever grateful for the friendship with all the Lloyd family. For sure, England's loss is sure America's and the Abrams' gain. Sorry that the current situation does not allow us to come to the Visitation and Memorial Service. I know those events will celebrate the Life and not the death of Tim Lloyd. Tim was a great man, accomplished a lot in his life, and loved his family dearly. We are glad to have been a small part of Tim's journey and know he is now in peace and receiving his life's reward in heaven.
