“ Prayers for all affected by the loss. Tim was my classmate in middle school and high school. We used to call him "Willie Clay". It had something to do with his trucking business and perhaps another driver. He hung out with Goat Man, Chicken Man, Woody and many other good folks. Tim was always kind, funny and a pleasure to be around. He's with Jesus now and look forward to the day that I may be able to see him again and learn about his life after our high school days. God Bless, H Fleming

“ May God watch over you, give you the strength and comfort you so need at this time. I pray that He will bless all of you in the days to come.

I met Timmy as a child about 11 years old. He was a student on my school bus in 1973. I watched him grow into a young man. he will be missed by many. My condolences to the family, Faye Kimbrell

“ This family has been apart of my life since I can remember. We all played together, laughed together, cried together, worked together, ate together, and lived together. I have watched Timmy race mud trucks, drive drag cars, hunt, fish, drink, act crazy and have fun. I've seen fun times and not so fun times with him. I've seen him hurt, grieve, and heal again. I will surly miss our talks about our daddy's. I Loved him as a brother.

Rest easy Timmy. I'm sending love, hugs and prayers to the family

Love y'all Wanda Pittman

“ Timmy worked for our company Southeastern Paving and Grading. I am saddened by the loss of this special man. My husband and I have so many memorials of Timmy that it's hard to say them all. Timmy was family, our company is small and we are all close. Timmy lived down the road from us. He came over often ate dinner or just hung out. He helped with the logo for our shirts "let us rock your world". He had that on his dump truck long before we used that. He got a big kick out of us using his wording. He smiled like a monkey eating briars. The last time we where all together was Christmas party at Long Horns. He loved the biggest steak that had. We will miss him sooo much. He will forever be in our hearts. Until we meet again keep smiling Timmy. We love you Warren and Robin Chadwick
