“ Toby was a great friend, the kind of person who could light up the room with his smile or instantly make you laugh with one of his witty comments! My heart is saddened to hear of his passing. My deepest and most heartfelt sympathies are with all who knew and loved him. I cannot even imagine the heavy hearts that are with his family but I am praying that God's love and peace will comfort you through this time of grief. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Shannon Ingram##imported-end##

“ Brenda, Jerry, Bo, & Tammy,
As an old friend stopping to write this note, I want to say what a handsome man your "Toby" - what a beautiful little family he has - and how obvious that he cherished the people and things dearest to his heart. No doubt he knew how much he was loved as a son, a brother, a husband, a father, a friend, and family member. My heart and prayers go out to each of you. May the love of God, family, and friends bring some comfort to you in the days ahead. "Where a beautiful soul has lived, beautiful memories forever linger." Know that we're thinking of you. “ My heart hurts to think that Toby has left us so early. He had such a beautiful spirit and I hold many many fond memories of family holidays with him and spending time together at Papa Hulon and Nanny Mary Lou's. I wish I could be there physically with Jerry, Brenda, Tammy, Bo, and the rest of my Waldrip family during this hard time...please know that I'm thinking of you all. Love you!###imported-begin###Heidi Waldrip###imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for your and our loss of Toby. I was fortunate to meet Toby through Marshal and Susanna Bradly at an annual gathering at thier home many years ago. Over the course of time I always looked forward to seeing him and enjoying his fun take on those proceedings and his general warmth and kindness.I'm comforted to know that he is now in a better place, but even more so knowing that place is way better off to have Toby.##imported-begin##Jim Bulmer##imported-end##
