“ I had the pleasure of knowing Todd since 2013. He was so kind to me and so friendly. I clean at Old Dominion and Todd was always smiling, helpful and full of wonderful knowledge!! I will miss Todd terribly. My heart is broken for Margie and his children, grandchildren and family. My daughter, Aaliyah, doesn't know OD without Todd, she will miss his kindness and special friendship. One memory that comes to mind speaks about Todd's willingness to help without being asked...he saw a need and "fixed it" or helped solve problems or situations. I had a squeaky mop bucket LOL and Todd said "you ought to do something about those squeaky wheels". I laughed and agreed but told him I didn't have anything to put on them. It wasn't two minutes, Todd was back with some type of grease and I had no more squeaky bucket!! I was so happy!! He was always making us laugh. I will truly miss him. Some people make this time on earth better, and Todd was one who did!

“ 30 yrs plus friend and coworker @ Old Dominion freight line met Todd my 1st day on July 14 1989 and Todd became a true friend if I was to record the times we had laughed and talked to each other on the phone it would takes years we compared our family's was so similar with his wife working for the school/ bus system and so did mine and we both was drivers doing every type of driving they was to do at old dominion we put our blood sweat and tears into it when we didn't know if the company would last another year to its the power house it is today .I've learned alot from him from how to grill the perfect steak on the grill to life .Todd was a God fearing family man and a hard worker I respected him for sure and will truly miss talking with him. Prays lifted to the family
