“ I learned of Tom's passing from Dewey Herndon via my sister, Gail.

I am so sorry. Tom was such a young man.

Please know that I am thinking of his family during this time. May you find the strength to continue.

I am the daughter of Donald Herndon, Dewey Herndon's brother.

Thank you.##imported-begin##Rita Herndon##imported-end##

“ I'm Donald Herndon's oldest daughter, cousin of Dona and Dewey. I talked to Dewey today and was stunned to hear about Tom's death. I know that Tom was a good man and husband who made Dona proud. We always heard such good things about him.

You'll be in my heart and thoughts.##imported-begin##Gail Lawrence##imported-end##

“ Lisa and David, my deepest sympathies on the loss of your husband and father. Although its been a while since I've seen you, I remember how highly you spoke of Tommy and how much your love for your husband showed in everything you did. David, you've grown into quite a young man and I know you will continue to make your father proud. Hold tightly to each other in the days ahead and draw strength from those around you who love you so much. Much love to you both, Cheryl##imported-begin##Cheryl Talbert##imported-end##

“ Tom is and always will be my "brother." I have never known a day in my life with out him in it. He was my best friend and I will always love him. Many lives have been touched and blessed thru his life and his wonderful disposition. He was always the rock that many of us held to. God bless you Lisa and David, for he loved you both with such a special love. Connie, he loved and tried to protect you so much. God bless each life he has ever touched that you will remember him as he was-strong and caring. God take care of him, now, as you did while he was here with us.##imported-begin##Jenny Mincey##imported-end##
