“ Sharing deepest sympathies in your loss. Tom was like a brother to me or better. We attended Central Presbytererian Church from Grade School, volunteered there as adults, shared stories and hobbies, attended college and served in the military together never losing touch to this day. He was the only lifetime personal friend to attend my father's funeral. To say he will be missed would be an absurd understatement at this time. Words fail now. So very sorry.##imported-begin##Bill Fife##imported-end##

“ There is no doubt in my mind that Tom Starnes will be sorely missed. What a wonderful man! I've heard him described as a patient father, a warm husband, and a considerate friend. Indeed he was. I am reminded of this quote:

"While we are mourning the loss of our friend, others are rejoicing to meet him behind the veil." ~John Taylor

Much love, Tom.

“ Tom and I were IPMS members together and the only "car guys" among the bunch. I'll miss talking with him about the old days of sportscar racing and seeing him up at Road Atlanta for the Walter Mitty Challenge. I'll also miss his big smile and generosity - and will cherish the books he gave me. He was a great guy. Farewell, Tom.##imported-begin##Joe Scavotto##imported-end##

“ I have some very special memories of Tom Starnes. He was kind and caring and was a great listener. He always went the extra mile to send us books or gifts to let us know that he really remembered what our hobbies were. He had a really warm and generous heart and I know he will be terribly missed by his family. I will miss, most of all, the many stories Matt shared with us through the years. I send my love and deepest sorrow for your loss.##imported-begin##Sonji D. Nalley##imported-end##
