“ Just remembering the time when Tom and Lisa came and stayed with us in Tampa. We had so much fun except that Tom really whipped up on me fishing in my own lake with my own equipment, what a great memory. Really loved the guy and was so thankful he was not only in my sisters life but ours as well. We will miss his humor, love, advice and friendship.

“ One of the most caring men I knew. He always had something kind to say and loved making other people happy especially around Christmas time. His novelty candy canes brightened the day for so many people even strangers that he encountered along his route for the day. I have so many wonderful memories that I will always carry close to my heart. I will miss him so very much and I pray he is happy and pain free with the Lord and with those he loved that have passed before him. Rest in peace my dear friend 🙏❤️
