

Tony Wesley Moore

May 15, 1947 - May 1, 2026

Tony Wesley Moore, known to so many as Daddy and Papa, was called home by Jesus on May 1, 2026, surrounded by the family he loved so dearly.

Born on May 15, 1947, at Emory Hospital in DeKalb County, Georgia, Tony grew up in Lilburn. He was preceded in death by the love of his life, Bobbie Jean Moore, who passed away in 2023. This year would have marked 58 years of marriage. He was also preceded in death by his parents, William Hoyle Moore and Gladys Moore, his brother Billy Moore, and his sister Betty Smith.

He is survived by his sister, Merita Moore; his three children, Tonya Jean Hanks and husband Todd Hanks, Eric Wesley Moore and wife Sandy Moore, and Jason William Moore and wife Lisa Moore.

He was a proud grandfather to Jessica Bryant, Emily Magill, Wesley Moore, Sam Moore, and Jake Moore. He was also blessed with four great-grandchildren, Jackson, Leland, Olivia, and June. He loved every one of them deeply and was extremely proud of his entire family.

Tony was blessed with many lifelong friends. Everywhere he went, people were drawn to him. Over the years, customers became close friends, and everybody loved Tony.

He spent his entire life building. He was one of the most skilled carpenters, designers, and builders around, bringing customers' dreams to life through large remodeling projects. Much of his work is scattered throughout the metro Atlanta area, along with many commercial buildings that are still being used today.

Years of working with his hands gave him an unforgettable grip, and just about everyone commented on his firm handshake.

Tony grew up in one of the most fun times in history. He loved driving his 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air, heading to Jack's Diner to spend time with friends and show off the "Copper Penny." He was proud of that car and the memories that came with it.

In 1966, Tony was drafted into the United States Army. He proudly served his country, achieved the rank of Specialist 5, and was awarded the Sharpshooter Badge, National Defense Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal, and the Army Commendation Medal for Meritorious Service.

Through all of life's accomplishments and all the reasons to be proud, Tony was most proud of his family and his marriage to our mom.

As a strong man of faith, his walk in life was to become more and more like Jesus every day. To all who knew him, he will be remembered as the closest imitation of Jesus this side of Heaven, selfless, loving, kind, and truly one of a kind.

A Celebration of Life will be held Friday, May 8, 2026, at Graystone Church, 1551 Ozora Road, Loganville, Georgia 30052. The family will receive visitors from 10:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon, with the service immediately following at “ Tony was a gem! I always wanted to have faith as strong as Tony’s. Four years ago, he built my storage barn out back, so I got to spend some time talking with Tony. He was very sincere in his faith and the love for his family. Tony will be missed, because so many people counted on him. If something was ever broke you knew Tony could fix it. I’ll miss his friendship but I know where to find Tony....at the right side of God! R.I.P. Tony !
