“ Pert you always had a smile on your face in good times and bad! I will always cherish our childhood memories and how you brought so much joy into our lives. We are all hurt that you were taken to soon from your family and friends and wish you could have stayed with us longer, we must find peace that the lord called you home when he felt the time was right and find comfort you are with your other loved ones now. You are a special angel in heaven as you were here on this earth. We will see you again our sweet girl.. Our close love between our families will forever remain. Love you all, Donna

“ Tracy, you were a blessing to all who knew you. I had the pleasure of calling you my friend for most of my life. While my heart breaks for your family and friends, I can't help but be excited to know that you and Frankie are together again, where you belong. You'll long be remembered for the beautiful soul you possessed by the many who were proud to call you our friend.
