Travis was my eldest son Barrys friend and spent the night with us sometimes on Ezzard st in Lawrencville He was always very polite. I remember hin fondly and hate to hear this so much. Praying for all his loved ones during this hard time no words I can say , I am just so very sorry.

“ So sad to read about Travis and what a flood of memories when I saw his name. A name I've not heard in many years.

We grew up not far from the Criswell family in Grayson. The boys used to swim in our pool. We'd take Mary and Alice shopping at Christmas time for the family and we'd all sit in the floor in our den and wrap present together.

Though we completely lost touch, I still think of them from time to time as I'm traveling down 20 in Grayson. Precious memories. Deepest condolences to all of you.
