

Tristen Daniel Wilson

September 28, 2007 - February 18, 2024

Tristen Wilson age 16 of Stone Mountain, Georgia passed away on Sunday, February 18, 2024. He leaves behind his precious Mother, Dana V. Wilson, who has devoted her life to taking care of Tristen, he also left behind his father, Ron Saint, who he loved beyond measure. As well as sisters, Anslee, Elizabeth, and Lesley, whom he loved dearly. He is also survived by his grandmother Dianne Wilson of Jefferson, Georgia; his grandfather and step grandmother Danny & Carlene Wilson of Alabama; grandmother Maggie Saint of Stone Mountain, GA; grandfather Ronnie & Gerry Saint, Sr. of Roswell, GA; two uncles Brian and Matthew Wilson; along with many other beloved family members and a host of very special friends and loved ones.

Tristen was a fighter, and a true miracle. He suffered a traumatic brain injury after being struck by a fallen tree in 2013. The doctors never thought he would walk or talk. After many surgeries, and by Gods divine plan, Tristen defied the odds and was able to live another 11 plus years. He was able to attend some schooling, he even was able to do some of his favorite hobbies of fishing, collecting cars and trucks, and most of all spending some time with his friends and family and rooting on his favorite team the Georgia Bulldogs. Tristen was a beautiful miracle, even with his limitations, he always had a huge smile, and infectious laugh and personality, and a heart filled with love and kindness touching the lives of many people worldwide. He truly will be missed.

“ Of all my memories, it is hard to choose a favorite. I will always hear his sweet voice saying "Look Aunt Katie, look what I can do" those were his first words to me when he was first released after the accident. He ran circles in the yard. I was so overjoyed!
