“ Ursula and I were friends and neighbors for decades and spent a lot of time sitting in her kitchen talking and sharing. I made her laugh and she helped me by encouraging me through college when I didn't think I could do it and saw me graduate with honors and finally realizing my lifelong dream of becoming a teacher. We shared each other's heartbreaks, joys and Ah HA moments; a lifetime of sharing She was always there for me and I am so grateful for the beautiful friendship we shared. I promised that I would always be her friend and after I said "good-bye" to her last Wednesday, I told her we would see each other in heaven someday. I'll always remember how we enjoyed walking around the neighborhood, sharing food and shopping and visiting cafes. Because of her, I met our mutual friend, Peggy, who, when Ursula needed us, we shared a beautiful journey, in which, after some very difficult situations, she met Marietta, who also became a friend of mine and Peggy's, and welcomed her into a beautiful, and loving home where she was given the comfort and care she needed for the remainder of her life. Peggy and I had originally begun to visit Marietta's personal care home to visit Ursula,; however, this place has become special to me and I enjoy spending time with the residents and visiting with many of them. I believe that I will continue to do so. They have all touched my heart . I praise the Lord for our friendship and for how it has blessed my life.
