I worked with Patsy at First National Bank of Gw years ago. Such a sweet, wonderful person, and no one could bake a pound cake like she could. Sending prayers to the family!

“ Just learned this sad news. Ronnie and I lived next to her during our early married years and when our oldest daughter, Tiffany, was born. She was the best neighbor and even baby sat Tiffany in the evenings when we would go, after working at our jobs all day, to where we were building our first house. We are saddened beyond words. We extend our most heartfelt sympathy to her family. Gloria & Ronnie Burroughs

“ I worked with Patsy many years ago and participated in several trips to the Yellow Daisy Festival with her and co-workers. She was such a kind and wonderful person and will be missed by all. I will always remember her smiling and her caramel cake was absolutely the best! My prayers go out to the family.
